Residents of White City Water Improvement District ("WCWID") who are interested in filling the at-large Trustee position recently vacated, due to a trustee moving outside of WCWID's boundaries, must meet the statutory requirements of an elected official at the time of application. Candidates must submit this application and are encouraged to submit a letter of interest that includes a description of their background and why they are interested in the position. Please note, the remaining term of office for Trustee seat will be July 16, 2025, through December 31, 2026. All qualified individuals who submit an application to fill the Trustee position vacancy will be interviewed by the WCWID Board of Trustees in a public meeting at 999 E. Galena Drive on July 16, 2025, at 6:00 p.m. The Board of Trustees will appoint a replacement at the same meeting. The application and letter of interest will be included in the materials for the City Council meeting.

Applicants are strongly encouraged to attend the interviews in person. However, if a candidate cannot attend personally he or she may request from the Chair of the Board of Trustees the opportunity to participate via a Zoom link. The Chair can choose whether or not such a link will be made available and will inform the candidate and WCWID staff of the decision. A request to the Chair shall be by email to pflint@wcwid.utah.gov. A remote participant must be available during their scheduled interview time, as the Board of Trustees will not consider candidates who are unavailable for any reason during this period. Additionally, candidates participating remotely are required to remain connected on Zoom from the beginning of the meeting until a candidate has been appointed by the Board of Trustees.

The deadline for submitting an application is Monday, July 14, 2025, at 5:00 p.m.

Applications are available online at wcwid.utah.gov and at the WCWID Offices, 999 E. Galena Drive between 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Applications must be submitted in person to the WCWID General Manager or Office Manager.
